

First 5 Monterey County Evaluation Redesign 2006-2007
 Outcomes, Indicators and Data Sources by Priority Area

First 5 Monterey County Child Health Priority Area
Outcome	Indicator
Improved child health	Parents and children have access to appropriate health care
	Parents and children use preventative medical and dental health care
	Children are identified for health and developmental issues

First 5 Monterey County Child Development Priority Area
Outcome	Indicator
Increased parental involvement	Parents who report participation during the school year
	Parents who report participating in a parent/teacher meeting
	Parents with children who have communicated with child's kindergarten/school
Improved child development	Parents who report seeing an increase in their child's engagement in child development activities
	Children who are screened for special needs
	Children screened for special needs who obtain additional services

First 5 Monterey County Evaluation Redesign 2006-2007
 Outcomes, Indicators and Data Sources by Priority Area

First 5 Monterey County Family Functioning Priority Area
Outcome	Indicator
Improved parenting practices	Increased parental knowledge of child development
	Parents engage with children in pre-academic activities
	Parents utilizing positive discipline techniques
	Parents engage with children in quality family activities
Decreased parenting stress	Parents report improved ways of dealing with stress
	Parents having fewer concerns about providing for the family's needs
Improved family systems	Parents' increased knowledge of parent support services
	Parents accessing and utilizing resources that meet their needs
	Parents who report accessing and utilizing resources that meet the needs of their children
Improved social and emotional development	Improvements in child's behavior
	Increase in child's engagement in child development activities

First 5 Monterey County Systems Change Priority Area – School Readiness Collaborative
Outcome	Indicator
Increased service integration	Programs awareness of services and resources available
	Programs participating in activities with other SRC partners
Increased access to services	Programs collaborating with Family Resource Centers
	Programs collaborating with schools
Increased staff capacity to serve children 0 to 5 and their families	Programs who report Improved referral process
	Programs who report Increased professional development among staff